Typical village house in need of total renovation, situated in the centre of the village of Jalón. Its distribution briefly consists of ground floor; Spacious entrance hall, lounge/dining room with fireplace and water deposit, double bedroom with window to the street, pantry with exit to the interior courtyard, old kitchen with stone sink and bread oven, bathroom with shower and old corral used as a store room. From the living room stairs lead up to the first level with a generous bedroom consisting of two rooms with windows onto the interior courtyard. The second level offers an entrance hall, a large family room with window to the street and a second double bedroom with window to the courtyard. Finally, on the top level we can find the old alcove which is completely open plan and ideal to be converted into the master bedroom. The property has all the essential services such as mains water and electricity. A total reform of the property is needed with the possibility of keeping the rustic terracotta floors, the solid wooden doors and the wooden beams. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate its superb location and fantastic potential.
