Spectacular finca located on the very edge of the village enjoying wonderful views of the mountains and the village of Jalón. The property is made up of three separate properties, all in need of total renovation; the main house has an area of 231 m² with a large interior patio and a lovely covered porch, attached to the house is a second covered porch, formerly used as a drying room and finally at another point on the plot is a third covered porch of 91 m² which could be used perfectly as a separate garage. To appreciate the potential of this wonderful property it is advisable to visit it.
