Country house with project for the construction of a house of more than 200 m². Old country house of about 20 m², on a plot of more than 10.000 m², with the possibility to build a detached house, in Jalón. The plot is located only 3 km from the village of Jalón, surrounded by nature, south facing and with good access. The plot is practically flat and has a project for the construction of a house with a surface area of more than 200 m². In the area it is not possible to connect to mains electricity and mains water, a system of solar panels and a water deposit would be necessary. The plot is ideal for mountain lovers without being far from the city.
